Tumblr is an easy to use, fast-growing blogging platform with a strong emphasis on simple, no hassle content sharing.

Weblogs? Been there, done that. Facebook? It's full of kids. Twitter? That's so 2006, darling. No, the smart thing to be doing online these days is tumblelogging, which is to weblogs what text messages are to email - short, to the point, and direct.

Post anything

Tumblr makes it effortless to share anything you find or create. Post text, photos, quotes, links, dialogues, audio, video, slideshows, and more.

It's free!
Don't pay for storage. Don't pay for bandwidth. Don't even pay for advanced features like full theme source code control, custom domain hosting, and group blogs.

Keep things to yourself
Create private posts or entire private blogs. Invite friends, family, or co-workers to view or contribute.

Nothing you don't want
Tumblr doesn't force any ads, banners, or logos into your theme.

Perfect for groups
Invite an unlimited number of people to contribute to one blog. Even allow your audience to submit posts for your approval!

Custom domains
Use your own domain name.
